Biography

Jeffrey primarily concentrates his practice on toxic torts and asbestos-exposure defense as well as general insurance defense. He has extensive experience defending a wide range of clients in asbestos litigation, including representing a national Fortune 500 client and traveling the country in the company's defense. He continues to represent several companies sued in asbestos matters and has conducted hundreds of depositions while coordinating clients' retention of expert witnesses for cases in New York State.

Additionally, Jeffrey defends personal-injury suits resulting from claims of general negligence, accidents on property, and those involving motor vehicles. He also represents clients in mediation and arbitration matters. He works directly with clients, their insurers, and counsel to obtain favorable outcomes in NYS cases. Additionally, to assist in the representation of interstate clients, Jeffrey provides oversight on a wide variety of cases pending in Pennsylvania.
