Biography

Kevin serves as a co-chair of the Financial Institutions & Lending Practice Area. He has extensive experience serving public finance clients as letter-of-credit bank counsel, bond counsel, and underwriter's counsel in variable rate and fixed rate tax-exempt and taxable financing transactions involving not-for-profits, including hospitals, nursing homes, and other health care entities; colleges and universities; and charitable organizations.

Kevin additionally represents lenders and borrowers in not-for-profit financing transactions involving secured loans, real estate financing, receivables and equipment financing, letters of credit, lines of credit, standby bond-purchase agreements, and ISDA swaps. He is also experienced with obligated group health care financing structures, secured lending, syndicated lending, taxable and tax-exempt leasing structures, and not-for-profit corporate and real estate transactions.
