

Alix Hirsh

She | Her | Hers

Associate

New York

P: 212.784.5836

ahirsh@barclaydamon.com

Education

- Tel Aviv University, BA
- New York Law School, JD

Practices & Industries

- Health & Human Services Providers
- Health Care Controversies
- Pharmacy

Admitted to Practice

- New York

Biography

Alix draws on her background in investigations, regulatory compliance, and legal analysis to assist health care providers in navigating complex legal and regulatory challenges. She has extensive experience with analyzing large volumes of sensitive information, interpreting complex rules and regulations, and preparing detailed investigative reports and disciplinary recommendations—skills that assist her in advising health care clients facing regulatory scrutiny, internal compliance issues, or government inquiries.

Prior Experience

- New York City Department of Investigation, Investigative Attorney
- Human Rights First, Accountability Legal Fellow
- Law Office of Jill R. Cohen, Legal Clerk
- Physicians for Human Rights, Legal Intern
- Jacob Blaustein Institute for the Advancement of Human Rights, Legal Intern
- Open Society Foundations, Research Assistant for Christian De Vos

Selected Community Activities

- Human Rights First, Emerging Leaders Advisory Board

Selected Honors

- New York Law School, C.V. Starr International Law Post-Graduate Fellowship, 2022–2023

Selected Media

- Law360, "A Shift in How Policymakers Are Approaching PBM Regulation"

Selected Alerts & Blog Posts

- NYS Legislators Advance Patient Access to Pharmacy Act, Establishing New PBM Reimbursement Standards
- New York State Board of Pharmacy to Require Individual Pharmacist Licensure for Shared Pharmacy Services
- New York State Medicaid Intensifies Enforcement of Medicare Enrollment Requirements for Pharmacies
- Shifting Drug Pricing Models: Independent Pharmacies Need to Develop Compliance Strategies Now
- Pharmacies on High Alert: Optum Rx's 25-Percent Therapeutic-Class Cap Creates Major Legal, Operational, and Competitive Risks