Biography

Elisa focuses her practice on trusts and estates matters, with an emphasis on complex trust work and sophisticated planning for high-net-worth individuals and families. She assists clients in navigating the estate planning process and drafts the full suite of estate planning documents, including wills, trusts, and advance directives. Elisa approaches estate planning as a comprehensive, life-centered process—helping clients plan not only for the transfer of wealth but also for the practice and personal considerations that arise throughout life.

Additionally, Elisa advises on trust and estate administration, wealth transfer planning, Medicaid planning, asset protection from nursing homes, and special needs planning. She works closely with individuals and families to develop tailored plans that preserve assets, provide for loved ones, and support long-term goals.

Elisa serves on the Rochester office Opportunity, Inclusion & Belonging Leadership Team.
