

Education

- University at Buffalo School of Law, Buffalo Law Review, Associate, JD
- Houghton University, Summa Cum Laude, BA

Practices & Industries

- Health Care Controversies
- Health & Human Services Providers

Admitted to Practice

- New York (Pending)

Biography

Danielle assists with the representation of clients in a wide range of health care controversies and health and human services providers matters. She has gained experience through a summer associate position with Barclay Damon, a legal internship in the Civil Legal Services Unit of the Legal Aid Bureau of Buffalo and in New York's 23rd Congressional District, and pre-law student fellowships with Houghton University's History and Political Science Department and a law firm in Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

Selected Memberships & Affiliations

- University at Buffalo School of Law, Buffalo Public Interest Law Program, Former Executive Board Member

Prior Experience

- Barclay Damon LLP, Summer Associate
- Legal Aid Bureau of Buffalo, Civil Legal Services Unit, Legal Intern
- US House of Representatives, New York's 23rd Congressional District, Corning Office Intern
- Houghton University, History and Political Science Department, Pre-Law Student Fellow
- Rieders Travis Law Firm, Pre-Law Student Fellow